

MARY THORNLEY

President

Trident Technical College

Dr. Thornley holds a Doctor of Education degree from the University of South Carolina. President of Trident Technical College since 1991, she is a visionary who believes in the transformational power of education and the impact educational opportunity can have for both the individual and the greater community.